

2015 ANNUAL ENERGY CONFERENCE AT SKAMANIA LODGE

Along with the Northwest Gas Association and the Northwest Industrial Gas Users, the Industrial Customers of Northwest Utilities will be hosting an annual energy conference on June 3-4, 2015, at the Skamania Lodge in Stevenson, Washington. The agenda will cover the key issues affecting the future of natural gas and power in the Pacific Northwest. Sponsorships at the silver and bronze level are still available, and organizations are encouraged to join the other 2015 sponsors to help fund the conference. A 2015 Sponsorship Form is available at the link below:
